Table of contents

1 INTRODUCTION AND SCOPE ............................................................................................................... 1
2 OUR POLICY ..................................................................................................................................... 2
3 ACCOUNTS AND AUDITS .................................................................................................................... 5
4 TRAINING .......................................................................................................................................... 6
5 DUTY TO REPORT AND WHISTLE-BLOWING ........................................................................................ 7
6 NO RETALIATION............................................................................................................................... 8
1 Introduction and scope

This document defines Alight | NGA HR's policy on the avoidance of bribery and corruption. It is applicable globally to all companies in the NGA group, their employees, and business partners. It will be regularly reviewed to ensure that it reflects any changes in applicable laws (including the UK Bribery Act 2010, the Money Laundering Regulations 2017, the Criminal Finances Act 2007, the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and subsequent laws and regulations replacing them) and developments in acceptable standards for the conduct of business. We are committed to maintaining the highest ethical standards and vigorously enforcing the integrity of our business practices wherever we operate throughout the world. Alight | NGA HR will not engage in bribery or corruption of any kind. Adherence to the guidelines set out in this policy will help ensure that we comply with anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and governmental guidance.

This policy is intended to guide our actions and to prevent any activity that is counter to Alight | NGA HR’s business integrity, values, and Code of Conduct. Alight | NGA HR has a zero-tolerance policy towards any act of Bribery, which is offering, promising, giving, authorizing, assisting or accepting anything of value in order improperly to obtain or retain business. Common examples of bribery are:

- Channeling payments via intermediaries such as agents, subcontractors, consultants or other third parties, or giving a portion of contract payment as a kickback to government or party officials or employees of the other contracting party.
- Facilitation payments to expedite routine government actions.
- Extortion or solicitation, which is the demanding of a bribe, whether or not coupled with a threat if the demand is refused.
- Trading in influence, which is the offering or soliciting of an undue advantage in order to exert an improper, real or supposed influence with the purpose of obtaining an undue advantage.
- Laundering proceeds of corrupt practices, which is the act of concealing or disguising the illicit source, location, disposition, movement or ownership of property, when you knew or should have known that such property is the proceeds of a crime;
- Other corrupt practices, including but not limited to, collusion, fraud, embezzlement and the like.

In this Policy, we will refer to all the foregoing as “bribes”.

Alight | NGA HR reserves the right to modify or amend this policy at any times as it may deem necessary
2 Our policy

2.1 Bribes and kickbacks

Alight | NGA HR does not, directly or indirectly, take part in acts of corruption, or pay bribes, or receive kickbacks. Alight | NGA HR prohibits all acts of corruption, including paying bribes or kickbacks to, or accepting bribes or kickbacks from, public officials and private individuals such as the personnel of companies with which Alight | NGA HR does business. A typical example of indirect bribery would be when a company employs a commercial agent to help it win a government contract, the agent is paid by commission based on a percentage of the contract fee, and part of that commission is passed on by the agent to a government official as a bribe to influence the awarding of the contract to the company. At Alight | NGA HR we do not tolerate such practices in any form or wherever paid or offered.

All Alight | NGA HR employees who are responsible for engaging the services of external consultants, suppliers, advisers or other business partners, should ensure that these business partners are made aware of the requirements of NGA’s Anti-Corruption policy prior to entering into the relationship.

2.2 Facilitation payments

Alight | NGA HR will not make facilitation payments even if such payments are local practice or custom. Alight | NGA HR accepts that refusal to make illicit payments may lead to commercial delays, for example, in the processing of government papers, and that there may be a commercial cost to Alight | NGA HR attributable to this policy.

If Alight | NGA HR employees encounter a demand for a facilitation payment, or think they are likely to do so, they should report the situation to their manager without delay. Line managers should then ensure that Alight | NGA HR Legal & Compliance is involved so that a proper course of action can be determined.

2.3 Extortion and protection money

Alight | NGA HR rejects any type of threat, abuse of authority, intimidation, blackmail, oppressive exaction, and extortion. If anyone approaches you with such a threat or is seeking money or other things of value in a way that is coercive in nature, you should immediately report this to your manager or to a member of the Alight | NGA HR Legal & Compliance team.

2.4 Gifts, hospitality and expenses

Alight | NGA HR employees may not offer to, or accept from, third parties, any gifts, hospitality, rewards, benefits or other incentives that could affect either party’s impartiality, improperly influence a business decision or lead to the improper performance of an official duty. Similarly, they may not offer or accept cash donations.

Alight | NGA HR employees may offer and accept ‘reasonable’ and ‘proportionate’ gifts and business entertainment and amenities, such as dinner, theatre parties or sporting events. In determining what is ‘reasonable’ and ‘proportionate’, employees should consider the value of the gift or benefit, as well as the frequency with which the same or similar gift or benefit is offered and reference the applicable reimbursement limits in the Alight | NGA HR Global Travel, Global Expense and Gifts & Entertainment policies. In all cases they must ensure that the gift or amenity:

- is being provided as an expression of goodwill and for sound business reasons and not in expectation of a return favor (a gift designed to secure a return favor could be seen as a bribe).
- is commensurate with generally accepted standards for business gifts or amenities, taking into account the norms for the locality and industry/professional sector in which it is offered.
- is being provided openly and transparently, and is of a nature that will not cause
2.5 Personal conflicts of interest

Alight | NGA HR employees must avoid situations or transactions in which their personal interests could conflict or might be seen to be in conflict with the interests of Alight | NGA HR. This includes: acting on any client information gained through their employment with Alight | NGA HR for personal gain; passing such information to a third party; or acting in any way that could be construed as insider trading.

Conflicts of interest can arise if individuals have a personal interest in business dealings involving Alight | NGA HR. Personal interest can be direct or indirect, and refers not only to personal interests but to those of family members and friends. If there is a potential for conflict, the interests of Alight | NGA HR must take priority.

Employees must disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest to their line manager for evaluation, who should involve senior management and Legal & Compliance as appropriate for guidance.

2.6 Charitable donations

As part of its corporate citizenship activities, Alight | NGA HR may support local charities or provide sponsorship, for example, to sporting or cultural events. Any such sponsorship must be transparent and properly documented and approved in advance by Alight | NGA HR Management and Finance. Alight | NGA HR will only provide donations to organizations that serve a legitimate public purpose, and which are themselves subject to high standards of transparency and accountability.

2.7 Political activities

Alight | NGA HR has a policy of political neutrality; it does not make donations to any political parties, organizations, or individuals engaged in politics. Alight | NGA HR will co-operate with governments and other official bodies in the development of policy and legislation that may affect its legitimate business interests, or where it has specialist expertise. Employees are of course entitled to their own political views and activities, but they may not use company premises or equipment to promote those views or associate their views with those of Alight | NGA HR.

2.7 Business partners (including agents, suppliers, vendors, joint ventures, and sub-contractors)

Alight | NGA HR expects its business partners to approach issues of bribery and corruption in a manner that is consistent with the principles set out in this policy. In most cases this requirement is expressly included in Alight | NGA HR’s terms of business with each business partner. In cases where Alight | NGA HR is unable to ensure these standards will be upheld, it will reconsider the business relationship.
2.7.1 Sales agents, consultants, and resellers

This policy applies with particular force to sales agents, consultants, and resellers. In many international corruption cases, sales agents, consultants, or resellers have passed on part of their commissions or discounts as bribes. Alight | NGA HR prohibits such practices.

In order to maintain the highest standards of integrity, employees must ensure that:

- They are fully briefed on the background and reputation for integrity of our sales agents, consultants, and resellers before engaging them. Alight | NGA HR will conduct reasonable due diligence enquiries to vet these business partners before entering a commercial relationship with them.
- The engagement process is appropriately documented; and that final approval of the selection of these business partners is made by someone other than the person selecting or managing Alight | NGA HR’s relationship with them.
- These business partners are provided with Alight | NGA HR’s Anti-Corruption policy, and in most cases have made a formal commitment to abide by it.
- Fees and commissions agreed will be appropriate and justifiable remuneration for legitimate services rendered.

Once agreements have been signed, Alight | NGA HR will continue to monitor its relationships with our business partners to help ensure that our Anti-Corruption policy is adhered to, and that any violations are appropriately dealt with. Contractual agreements should include appropriate wording making it possible to withdraw from the relationship if our business partners fail to abide by Alight | NGA HR’s requirements.

2.7.2 Joint venture partners

The need for documentation and careful reviews of Alight | NGA HR’s partners’ integrity records applies equally to the process of setting up and managing joint ventures and consortia. Alight | NGA HR will require commitments from such partners that help to ensure our joint ventures meet our integrity standards. Where Alight | NGA HR has majority control, it will require that the joint venture adopts an approach to bribery and corruption consistent with that set out in this policy.

2.7.3 Suppliers and contractors

Alight | NGA HR will ensure that the procurement procedure for appointing suppliers and contractors is fair and transparent. The selection of contractors will be based on an evaluation of professional merit and value for money.

2.8 Contracts

It is against our Policy for anyone in Alight | NGA HR to enter into unwritten or “cash only” contracts with no contractual documentation. Additionally, contracts relating to projects or other business transactions should generally include terms consistent with the following principles:

- All essential terms and all the services to be provided by all parties under the contract should be described in sufficient detail.
- All fees or other compensation payable for the contracted services should be proportionate to the services provided and commercially reasonable.
- Payment methods should be capable of legitimate justification (i.e., the other party may generally only be paid in the country of their incorporation; domicile; where their headquarters are located; or where the transaction was performed).
- When appropriate, include a warranty by each party that it will not participate in any corrupt practices in relation to the contract and it will take reasonable steps to ensure that its employees, agents, subcontractors and suppliers do not participate in any corrupt practices.
- When appropriate, include the right to terminate the contract in the event of a corrupt act by the other party or if we have good faith concern that they have acted in material violation of our anti-corruption policies and applicable anticorruption laws.
2 Accounts and audits

Alight | NGA HR’s policies require employees to keep fair and accurate accounts throughout Alight | NGA HR’s operations. In no circumstances will NGA keep parallel accounts. Alight | NGA HR’s regular auditing procedures will include a review of the local circumstances that may make particular offices or projects vulnerable to corruption, and the defenses and strategies that are in place to mitigate such risks.

Alight | NGA HR does not get involved with the criminally motivated nor engage in money laundering. It is also Alight | NGA HR’s policy to cooperate with legal authorities as may be required in order to help deter, prevent and apprehend money launderers.

The proper, accurate, reasonably detailed and timely recording, maintenance and reporting of books, records and accounts is crucial in deterring transactions which are in contradiction to generally accepted financial accounting practices, therefore, when performing accounting-related work for Alight | NGA HR, you shall not engage in any of the following practices:

- Intentionally recording false accounting entries;
- Receiving and making payments for goods and services without proper documentation (i.e., “off the books” transactions or secret accounts), outside of approved standard procedures, or involving entities which are not legitimate parties to the relevant transaction;
- Re-coding of invalid, unauthorized or non-existent expenditures with incorrect identification of their object or of unusual transactions which do not have a genuine or legitimate purpose; or
- Intentionally and improperly destroying accounts and transaction records and related documents.
4 Training

This policy is available on Alight | NGA HR’s intranet for all employees, as well as on our internet site for access by our customers, business partners and others. Alight | NGA HR’s mandatory Annual Compliance Training program reinforces the principles and approach to bribery and corruption adopted by this Policy.
5 Duty to report and whistle-blowing

We all have a duty to each other and Alight | NGA HR to report any attempted, suspected, actual or potential violations of anti-corruption laws.

All Alight | NGA HR employees should seek advice from their manager in cases of uncertainty about how to apply this policy or if they have good-faith concerns that any Alight | NGA HR employee or business partner is engaged in bribery, corruption, fraud or any other illegal or unethical conduct. Employees may also consult a representative of Legal & Compliance or they may contact Alight | NGA HR’s Whistleblowing Hotline at Whistle-blowing@ngahr.com or +44 (0) 1442 272 233.
6 No retaliation

Alight | NGA HR will not tolerate any form of retaliation against whistleblowers who report wrongdoings in good faith. In the event that the violator(s) discover the identity of the reporting individual, any retaliatory actions committed against the reporting individual will be treated seriously and may result in sanctions, ranging from disciplinary action to termination and potential referral to the authorities. Even if ultimately the alleged violation cannot be proven or may later prove to be false, you will be protected from retaliation if you have reported your concerns in good faith.
At Alight NGA HR, our mission is to innovate HR and payroll for today and tomorrow. We help our clients deliver seamless workforce services and empower HR as a strategic partner to drive data-driven decisions. As a result, HR leaders can offer better employee experiences, attract and retain talent more easily, manage the employee life cycle and support the globally connected, agile workforce.

www.ngahr.com